OCTOBER 2022

NEXT MEETING: Wednesday, OCTOBER 12, 7:00PM.

The October meeting program will be Bill Payne talking about his and Carol's trip to visit the replica of Noah's Ark in Williamstown, Kentucky. Meeting at the St. Stephens Methodist Church, 400 W. New Orleans, in Broken Arrow.

Dues were due in July. Please bring check for $30 or cash to the meeting and renew if you haven't already paid up.

September judging results: No ribbons given due to not enough entries.

At right is the replica of Noah's Ark with Carol Alley for scale. Bill Payne will show photos and tell about the Ark as part of the October meeting program.

Below is Paul Wee's relief carving of a rose. Paul will have a booth at Utica Square's "Art in the Square" on October 1.

Register today as classes fill fast!! Visit the instructors page of our website for class line-ups.

Monday night carve-ins are being well attended. At a recent carve-in there were 19 participants! That's more than attending regular meetings. At left and below left are photos from a recent carve-in. Looking forward to seeing more work from carve-in at the Show and Tell during meetings. Below is a recently completed stone carving by Gary Bennett.

Saws for Sale

George Hughes has a couple of saws he wants to sell to make room for a new saw.

- * Dewalt 10" miter saw $150 in great shape
 - * Table saw like new used less than an hour $120
- Contact him at 806-781-4475

New Members: Royall Sams and Carolyn Argo
Show and Tell: Paul Wee brought an unfinished relief carving of a rose
The Woodcarving and Arts Festival was discussed.
Bob Block thanked all who helped. Blake Werner volunteered to chair the show next year. Ken Setter did an amazing job with the floor plan. The carving competition judges were outstanding. Carol Alley and Jessica Gannaway did yeoman's work at tabulating. An additional hand at tabulating would have been beneficial. Next years dates have not been set yet.

Rusty Johnson recently visited his Louisiana cousin and took photos of two of his carvings in her collection. At right is a stylized bear family in basswood about eight inches wide. The stylized bird below is about four inches tall and carved from walnut on a Bradford pear stick. Both carvings were done in the early 2000s.

Great Plains Woodcarvers

In lieu of a full-blown show, the Great Plains Woodcarvers are holding a "One Day Show and Sale" Saturday, October 22 Sedgwick County Extension Office 7001 W. 21st. St. Wichita Kansas

For more information contact Scott Kailer, 2518 N. Parkdale St. Wichita KS 67205 Cell: 316-204-5294

Members. Please send to the newsletter editor photos of interest to carvers. This could include your carvings, carvings in an art exhibit, clay sculpture, etc. Otherwise you will be seeing more of the same from the usual suspects, not that that's a bad thing but we need a little variety.

EOWA T-Shirts Now Available
 New EOWA t-shirts are available in time for the show. Cost is only $12, so inexpensive you can't afford not to have one. Sizes available are Large, XLarge, 2XLarge and 3XLarge. See Bill Payne or Carol Alley to purchase.

Bill Payne will be presenting "Carving a Polar Bear group" (right) October 19-21. Check with Bill about availability and location.
