

NEXT MEETING: Wednesday, SEPTEMBER 14, 7:00PM.

The September meeting will be at the St. Stephens Methodist Church, 400 W. New Orleans, in Broken Arrow..
Dues were due in July. Please bring check for $30 or cash to the meeting and renew if you haven't already.

Woodcarving and Folk Arts Festival

The arts festival is history and a huge thanks goes out to everyone who helped with the running of the show. A blue ribbon goes out to all the old-hand and the newbie judges. The folks who manned the club tables and the layout masters who executed the booth plan were all stellar performers. And most of all great job to show chair Bob Block.

Mike Stephenson was able to give one-on-one instruction to his only participant during the beginners tutorial.

Bill Payne is participating in a six-week clay sculpture class at the new Broken Arrow art center. The skull was a beginning subject followed by a subject of the students choice (left).

Rusty Johnson carved this butternut penguin comfort animal for a friend who is undergoing cancer treatment. The penguin (above right) will accompany her to M. D. Anderson in the coming weeks.

Elijah Scharpf, grandson to Ken Scrivner, engineered this unique mushroom light (left). A soft gelatinous mystery material was used to form the mushrooms.

Jay Stevenson (below) was awarded a purple heart for wounds suffered during the speed carving contest at the summer show. Jay also performed yeoman's duty wrangling the Oklahoma tax commission forms for show exhibitors.

LOOKING FORWARD TO THE COMING YEAR.

In a small village, Rajecka Lesna in Slovakia, it took woodcarver Jozef Pekara more than 15 years to create an original and unique Bethlehem. It is 8.5 meters wide, 2.5 meters deep, 3 meters high, and contains more than 300 figures, of which approximately 200 are moving. Here are a few details from the amazing masterwork: a polka band (below), a nativity scene (right), a house interior (bottom) and a beer brewer (bottom right).

EOWA T-Shirts Now Available
 New EOWA t-shirts are available in time for the show. Cost is only $12, so inexpensive you can't afford not to have one. Sizes available are Large, XLarge, 2XLarge and 3XLarge. See Bill Payne or Carol Alley to purchase.
