SEPTEMBER 2023

NEXT MEETING: Wednesday, October 11, 7:00PM.

The October meeting program will discuss the future of the annual show. The meeting will be as usual at the St. Stephens Methodist Church, 400 W. New Orleans, in Broken Arrow.

September meeting: Brian from the Tulsa Planetarium was the presenter at the September meeting and gave a very interesting talk on astronomy.

Show and Tell: Teresa Ghosey brought these nice M&M spoons she made from basswood using the kolrosing technique that involves using a kolrosing knife to score the wood. Cinnamon or coffee is rubbed into the scored wood to show the pattern. The piece is then oiled or waxed for the final finish.

Show and Tell: James Wallace shows the Japanese style sword he carved from Osage orange (above).

Show and Tell: Steve Walter carved this cartoon fish from basswood (right). On the back is the quote : "God does not deduct from man's allotted span, the hours spent in fishing."

YEARLY DUES WERE DUE IN JULY. DUES ARE $30.00 FOR THE YEAR. SEE ROY H.

The Caricature Carvers of America also had a competition in conjunction with their show. The contest was for the "Ugliest Cowboy" carving sponsored by Cavender's Western Clothing. Rusty's carving of "Curly" (above) did not win but was fun to do.

Two more winners from the EOWA summer show: Warren Rauscher's chip carved container (right top) shows his incredible technique and precision.

Penny Boyle's Halloween carving (below) won the category "Holiday".
