

The "ear class" was scheduled for February but postponed to March because of the weather. The April 9 meeting we will do the class on carving the human nose.

NEXT MEETING: Wednesday, March 12, 7:00PM.

The program will be "Lend Me Your Ears", the second in a series of presentations on carving eyes, nose, mouth and ears. This is a hands-on demonstration so please bring a V-tool, carving knife, small gouge, pencil and glove. Wood will be furnished. We will follow a step-by-step process for carving an ear. The presentation will include basic structure, layman's nomenclature and key things to remember about carving the ear. Again our ideal will be Michelangelo's "David". No guarantees that we will achieve that goal but we will try.

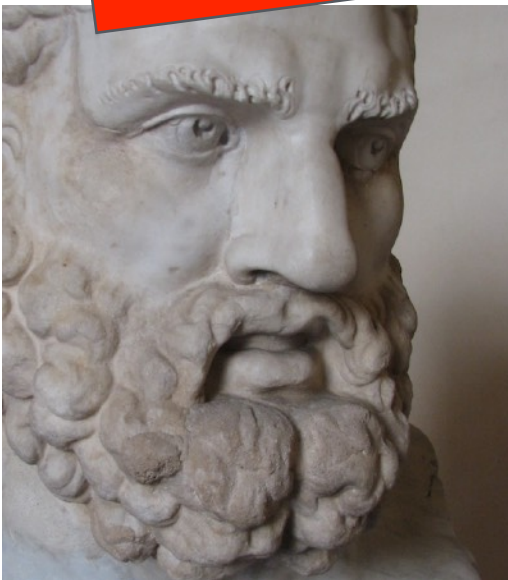

As usual the meeting will be at the St. Stephens Methodist Church in Broken Arrow.

Schedule for Meetings on Carving:

Ears: March 12

Nose: April 9

Mouth: May 14 (tentative)

Preview for the April meeting where we will carve a nose. Four classic noses and ears to study. Renaissance 1500 (top), Greek 400 BCE (left), Roman classic 100 BCE (center), Italian late 1800's (right), and Italian Renaissance 1500 (top).
