

NEXT MEETING: Wednesday, January 10, 7:00PM.

The January meeting will be the New Year meeting where we all welcome in 2024! There will be champagne, noise-makers and a dance band. Just kidding. Let's welcome the new officers with a renewal of club enthusiasm and a positive attitude to making good chips and cool carvings!

The meeting will be as usual at the St. Stephens Methodist Church, 400 W. New Orleans, in Broken Arrow.

Below: Show and Tell for December: Bison carved by Steve Walter (after a bison carving by Oklahoma Indian artist Willard Stone). Bill Payne carved the ring-necked duck from Bradford pear. Bill allows that the wood was some of the worst that he has carved and that's saying a lot. He recommends carving a brick instead.

Lynx (left) and bass (above) were carved by Rick Brooks.

YEARLY DUES WERE DUE IN JULY. DUES ARE $30.00 FOR THE YEAR. SEE ROY H.

Juli Allen with the letter from a serviceman who received one of the club's ornaments. Also shown is her Uncle Sam Santa.

This baobab tree in Senegal (west Africa) is more than 6,000 years old, one of the oldest living things on earth (making it slightly older than Bill Payne). Thanks for the photo Bill. Imagine how many Christmas ornaments could be made from the wood from this tree!

The elusive Bob Block seen with his sweet wife Sharon at a family get together in late November. Bob is doing well although he still is careful about whom he is able to be in contact with.

Rusty Johnson's Roadrunner carving "Hydrate, Hydrate, Hydrate" received one of three honorable mentions at the recent Tulsa Artists Coalition members show in December. His Whac-A-Gnome was also selected for the show.
