NEXT MEETING Wednesday, Nov. 11!

Meeting at St. Stephens Methodist Church (400 W. New Orleans) in Broken Arrow. The church is located east of the intersection of 101st and Elm in Broken Arrow. A box of basswood has been donated to the club for meeting give-away by Rod Wilcox, our summer show wood supplier. Attend the meeting and you might get lucky!

The church requires masks and social distancing at all meetings on their premises. Carol Alley will be taking member temperatures at the door with a touch-less thermometer and anyone exceeding the base requirement will be asked not to attend. The room can seat 35 people with proper social distancing.

We received more than 300 Christmas ornaments for the Blue Star Mothers!!! Three Blue Star Mothers were on hand to accept the donation. They were very happy to receive the gifts that are probably already on the way to service members overseas.

Looks like Ken Scrivner is conducting Blue Star Mothers Trio but is actually photographing Blue Star Mothers accepting 2020 Christmas ornament donations.

Display Cases Looking for a Forever Home

Pat and Buck Herron have been holding two display cases for the club for years. They are selling their building and need to see the cases gone. If any one needs them or knows any group or organization that could use them please call or email Pat Herron 918-587-2825 (shop). 918-697-7888 (cell) or poherron@yahoo.com They each measure: 4 ft. wide, 4ft. 2 in. tall and 30 inches deep. And best of all, they are free. First come, first served.

Two more from Bill Payne: Indian Head from cedar and Oklahoma Tornado incorporating a coil spring from an inner-spring mattress.
