NEXT MEETING Wednesday, Oct. 14!

After an informal survey of several EOWA members, the consensus wish to resume our monthly meetings. It has been arranged for the next meeting to be Wednesday, Oct. 14, at St. Stephens Methodist Church (400 W. New Orleans) in Broken Arrow. We will pay the church the same $50 per meeting fee as we do at the Central Center, which is still unavailable. The church is located east of the intersection of 101st and Elm in Broken Arrow. A box of basswood has been donated to the club for meeting give-away by Rod Wilcox, our summer show wood supplier. Attend the meeting and you might get lucky!

The church requires masks and social distancing at all meetings on their premises. Carol Alley will be taking member temperatures at the door with a touch-less thermometer and anyone exceeding the base requirement will be asked not to attend. The room can seat 35 people with proper social distancing.

The Central Center will not be open for Thursday carvings. They have been temporarily suspended due to lack of participation. When activities resume we will let you know.

If you have a project in progress or finished please send me a photo and description for Show and Tell.

Monthly judging: Send me your carving entries for judging which I will post in the newsletter. Anyone can be a judge. As a judge you look at the photos and assign points to them using the parameters on our judging forms. Granted you will not be able to examine closely and are limited to just one view. Send me your points for each piece and I will award place finishes. Here are the entries for September judging. Your vote and scores will remain anonymous. Send your points for each carving to ytsurjohnson@aol.com.

Send photos for November judging to ytsurjohnson@aol.com. More than one view of carving would be nice.

To refresh your judging memory here are point possibilities: Carving Skill 1-25 points; Artistry 1-15 points; Finish 1-10 points. Maximum total points for one carving 50 points.

We will be receiving Christmas ornaments for the Blue Star Mothers so bring them!! The program will be a presentation by Rusty Johnson on his 2009 trip to the Geisler-Moroder Woodcarving School in Austria.

Monthly Judging:

The two carvings in the October judging ended in a tie because no one sent in votes! The fish was by Bill Payne and the bark carving is by Bob Block.

Thanks to all who have entered the monthly judging, your participation has been appreciated. Do not be modest or afraid to enter. Everyone is welcome no matter the skill level. Please send a carving photo for November judging! We need entries from more than just the old standbys.

My class I was scheduled to teach in the Glenn Rose carving round-up was canceled. I have the rough-outs made for the class which I will sell at my cost of $15 each. It includes four views of the finished project. -Bill Payne

Just finished these two. The egg is a 3 inch basswood. The other is 9 inches tall. It is from a rough-out, but I don't remember whose. The rough-out was holding a box, but one of my granddaughters said a teddy bear would be better, so...- Charles Parkin

This catfish carving was sent to me with no name and the email address was not in my contacts. All it said was "carved for the Lazy Fisherman in Bixby as a gift." The email address was from +19186409154@tmomail.net . Does anyone know what this is about? Looks like a nice fish...

Name this wood (left) and win a prize. Whoever can identify this cross-section of strange wood FIRST will win a 3" basswood egg courtesy of the newsletter editor. Contact Bill Payne if you know. You must attend the Oct. meeting to claim your prize.
